Rules of the International Educational and Outreach Project “Global Atomic Quiz 2026”

1. General provisions

These Rules set out the procedures and timeframes for the international educational and outreach project “Global Atomic Quiz 2026” (hereinafter referred to as the “Project”), including the requirements for participation in the Project and the procedure for determining its results.

The purpose of the Project is to promote nuclear science and technology, raise awareness among international audiences of their applications in various areas of everyday life, and provide information on recent achievements and future developments in the nuclear industry and the benefits of using nuclear technologies for peaceful purposes.

The Project is intended for a broad international audience (hereinafter referred to as the “Participants”), namely individuals from any country who meet the requirements and comply with the conditions set out in these Rules.

By participating in the Project, Participants agree in full to these rules (hereinafter referred to as the “Rules”).

The Project is governed by these Rules and constitutes a non-commercial educational and outreach event. It is not a promotional incentive event or a lottery.

General Information

1.1. Name: International educational and outreach project “Global Atomic Quiz”.

1.2. The Project is conducted at www.quiz.atomforyou.com and is open to Participants regardless of their location or nationality. The laws of the Russian Federation shall govern any relationships arising in connection with the conduct of the Project.

1.3. The Organiser of the Project is: Autonomous Non-Profit Organization for Nuclear Inform Centers Development “Energy of the Future” (ANO Energy of the Future), INN (Taxpayer Identification Number) 7726385219, KPP (Tax Registration Reason Code) 772601001, registered address: 3 Varshavskoye Shosse, Moscow, 117105, Russian Federation (hereinafter referred to as the “Organiser”).

1.4. Project schedule:

1.4.1. Overall Project period: from November 10, 2026 until the Prizes are awarded to the Winners, but no later than December 31, 2026. The overall Project period includes the time during which Participants take the steps necessary to participate in the Project, the time required by the Organiser to determine the Project Winners, and the time required by the Organiser to deliver the Prizes to the Winners following the Project.

1.4.2. The main part of the Project, consisting of a popular science quiz about the use of nuclear technologies in everyday life and global achievements in the nuclear industry (hereinafter referred to as the “Quiz”), will take place on November 10, 2026, from 00:00:01 to 23:59:59 local time for each Participant (according to the time zone of the Participant’s location).

1.4.2.1. The Participant’s time zone is determined automatically based on the geolocation (IP address) of their device. Access to the Quiz opens and closes automatically for each Participant according to the time zone determined for them, ensuring equal conditions of participation for Participants from different countries.

1.4.2.2. The Organiser shall not be liable for incorrect determination of a Participant's time zone or any resulting restriction of access to the Quiz if the Participant uses VPN services, proxy servers or other means that alter information about their location.

1.4.3. The Project results will be determined and the Winners announced by November 23, 2026, inclusive.

1.4.4. The Prizes will be awarded to the Winners in accordance with these Rules between November 23, 2026 and December 31, 2026, inclusive.

1.4.5. The exact dates for awarding the Prizes will be determined at a later date and communicated separately to the Project Participants by the Organiser.

1.4.6. The Organiser may change the timeframes specified in clauses 1.4.3–1.4.5 by notifying Participants on the Project website at www.quiz.atomforyou.com.

1.4.7. If the Prizes cannot be awarded to the Winners for reasons beyond the Organiser's control (including, but not limited to, force majeure events, natural disasters, or restrictions or prohibitions on the provision of digital services and products in the Winner's country), Project Participants will be informed accordingly. In such circumstances, the Organiser may, at its sole discretion, cancel the award of competition Prizes, substitute other Prizes or change the dates on which they are awarded.

1.5. Methods of informing Project Participants:

Project Participants will be informed of the Rules, schedule and results of the Project online at quiz.atomforyou.com, including all language versions of the website (hereinafter referred to as the "Website").

Before the Quiz begins, the Website will display an informational page describing the Project, a countdown to the start of the Quiz, an interactive game feature and a subscription form for reminders about the start of the Quiz. Subscribing to a reminder does not constitute registration to participate in the Quiz. The interactive game feature is not part of the competition, does not require registration and does not affect a Participant's Quiz results.

1.5.1. The Rules will be published in all language versions of the Website. In the event of any discrepancy between the Russian text of the Rules and translations into other languages, the Russian text shall prevail.

1.6. Initial communications with Participants and/or their parents or legal representatives, including verification of personal data, shall be conducted exclusively from the Project email address: info@atomforyou.com. Automated system notifications from the Website (notifications of results, delivery of certificates, etc.) will be sent from the Project email address.

2. Participants and Conditions of Participation in the Project

2.1. Individuals from any country may participate in the competitive part of the Project provided that they complete the registration form on the Website, supply a valid and unique email address, and consent to the processing of their personal data. Participants cannot take the Quiz without registering.

2.2. Minors participating in the Project who, under the national legislation of their country of residence or citizenship (hereinafter referred to as "national legislation"), are unable to perform the actions required under these terms and conditions independently shall do so through and/or with the assistance of their parents or legal representatives.

2.2.1. The parents or legal representatives of minor Project Participants are responsible for familiarising themselves with these Rules and providing all necessary consents in accordance with national legislation, including consent to the minor's participation in the Project and the processing of their personal data.

2.2.2. The Organiser shall presume that all actions taken by minor Participants in connection with the Project have been taken with the consent of, or through, their parents or legal representatives and do not contravene national legislation.

2.2.3. The Organiser may disqualify a minor Participant from the Project if it discovers that the required consent of the Participant's parents or legal representatives has not been obtained.

2.3. The following persons are not eligible to participate in the competitive part of the Project:

- employees of the Organiser, persons representing the interests of the Organiser, and members of their families;
- employees and representatives of third parties that have contractual relationships with the Organiser and are involved in organising and/or conducting the Project, and members of their families;
- employees and representatives of enterprises belonging to Rosatom State Corporation.

2.4. Project Participants have, in particular, the right to receive information about the Project in accordance with these Rules.

2.5. Project Participants shall have the following obligations:

- comply with the Project Rules throughout the Project;
- provide the Organiser with accurate information about themselves in accordance with the Project Rules;
- not register more than one account, use another person's personal details, automated tools (programs, scripts or bots), or any other unfair means of completing the Quiz;
- fulfil any other obligations provided for in these Rules.

2.6. The Organiser may block access to the Quiz and/or exclude the results of Participants exhibiting suspicious activity from consideration in the competition, including where duplicate registrations, attempts to retake the Quiz (including from the same IP address on the day of the Quiz) or the use of automated tools are detected.

3. Procedure for Participation in the Project Competition. Determination of the Project Winners

3.1. Upon completion of the competitive part of the Project, Winners will be determined who will receive prizes from the Organiser in accordance with the Project Rules (hereinafter referred to as the “Prizes”).

3.2. To participate in the competitive part of the Project, a Participant must register on the Website. Registration and application to participate in the Quiz form a single process: completing the registration form and submitting the information to the Organiser.

3.2.1. To register on the Website, an applicant must provide the following information about themselves by completing the relevant registration form:

- Surname, first name;
- Date of birth;
- Email address;
- Country;
- Confirmation of consent to the processing of personal data (participation is not possible without such consent), confirmation of acceptance of the Privacy Policy and these Rules, and consent to receive informational mailings.

3.2.2. After completing the form, a Participant may take the Quiz. Their results will be recorded, and they will be able to receive a certificate, only after they have answered all the questions. Participants will not be provided with a personal account.

3.2.3. The Organiser may refuse participation in the competitive part of the Project to Participants whose registration forms have not been completed properly (where incomplete or incorrect information has been entered). After registering, a Participant cannot change the email address entered during registration on the Website. The surname and first name provided during registration will be used to generate the Participant’s certificate.

3.3. Winners will be determined according to the following procedure:

3.3.1. Registered Participants must complete the Quiz.

3.3.1.1. The Quiz will be conducted online at quiz.atomforyou.com, including all language versions of the Website. Each Participant may choose the language version in which they wish to take the Quiz.

3.3.1.2. The Quiz consists of 17 (seventeen) questions linked by the theme of a single day (morning, afternoon, evening and night) and relating to the use of nuclear technologies in everyday life. Each question offers 4 (four) possible answers, of which the Participant must select the one correct answer.

3.3.1.3. A Participant may proceed to the next question only after answering the preceding one. The correct answers and explanations will be displayed to the Participant after they have answered all the Quiz questions.

3.3.1.4. Each Participant may take the Quiz only once: only one completed attempt per account with a valid and unique email address will be counted. Participants who take the Quiz more than once (including by using different accounts) will be excluded from consideration in the competition.

3.3.1.5. The time taken to complete the Quiz will be recorded by a timer. The timer starts when the Participant presses the button to begin the Quiz and stops after the last question is answered. The completion time is saved in the system and taken into account when determining the Winners.

3.3.1.6. If a Participant leaves the Website or refreshes the page before completing the Quiz, their attempt will be reset: their answers and elapsed time will not be saved.

3.3.1.7. Upon completing the Quiz, a Participant will be shown their results (the number of points scored and the time taken) and provided with an electronic certificate (clause 4.1 of the Rules). Participants are also required to complete a short mandatory survey evaluating the Quiz; participation in the survey is optional and does not affect their results.

3.3.1.8. An automatic ranking of Participants will be generated based on the number of correct answers and the speed at which they complete the Quiz. The more points a Participant scores, the higher their position in the ranking.

3.3.2. A Participant's final score is calculated as follows:

3.3.2.1. A Participant's final score is determined based on the number of correct answers, taking into account the speed at which they answer the Quiz questions (time factor).

3.3.2.2. The higher the total final score, the higher the Participant's position in the ranking.

3.3.2.3. If several Participants have equal scores, the Participant who completed the Quiz faster will be ranked higher.

3.3.3. Confirmation of the Project Winners:

3.3.3.1. To ensure balanced geographical representation among the Winners, the Organiser will select 100 Quiz Winners by November 23, 2026, based on the finalists' rankings and the country/region quotas established by the Organiser. The Organiser will determine the quota for each country/region after the Project has taken place, in proportion to the overall distribution of Participants by country or region. A Participant's country is determined using the information provided during registration.

3.3.3.2. No later than 13 (thirteen) calendar days after the end of the period specified in clause 1.4.2 of these Rules, the Organiser will publish a list of Winners on the Project Website, indicating the surname and first name of each Winner and their unique user identifier (ID). Winners will also receive notifications by email.

3.3.3.3. The Organiser will contact Winners by email to verify that they meet the eligibility requirements for Participants and that the information provided during registration is accurate. The Organiser will also request that Winners email the Project any additional information required to arrange delivery of the Prizes.

3.3.3.4. If a Winner fails to respond to the Organiser within 4 (four) calendar days of receiving the notification and/or the Organiser has reasonable grounds to doubt that the Participant's registration details correspond to their actual details, including, but not limited to, cases where the email address does not match the one supplied during registration, or the Participant has misrepresented their personal data or registered under a fictitious name and/or someone else's name, the decision to recognise that person as a Winner will be revoked and the Organiser will be entitled to select another Winner in accordance with the procedure described above.

4. Prizes for Project Participants

4.1. All Participants who complete the Quiz will receive a personalised electronic certificate of participation. The certificate will be generated automatically upon completion of the Quiz in the language version used by the Participant and will include the surname and first name provided during registration. Participants may download their certificate, send it to their email address and share it on social media. The certificate will be the same for all Participants who complete the Quiz, with no distinction based on ranking.

4.2. No more than 100 Participants may become Winners of the competitive part of the Project, based on the finalists' rankings and the country/region quotas established by the Organiser.

4.3. Winners of the competitive part of the Project will receive digital prizes: access to online courses offered by educational platforms (including foreign language courses), premium subscriptions and licences to use apps and software, as well as subscriptions to digital services (hereinafter referred to as a "Prize").

4.3.1. Within 10 (ten) calendar days of publishing the list of Winners, the Organiser will send an email to each Winner explaining how to claim the Prize and specifying the information required to receive it.

4.3.2. Each Winner will choose a Prize from the selection offered on the prize page, which they may access through a personal link sent to their email address. Prizes will be selected on a first-come, first-served basis, according to the order in which the Winners' requests are received.

4.3.3. The number of Prizes of each type is strictly limited. If a selected Prize has already been allocated, the Winner may choose an alternative from the remaining Prizes. The Organiser reserves the right to substitute an alternative Prize if the original Prize cannot be provided.

4.3.4. Certain Prizes may be subject to country-specific restrictions on use, require the Winner to have an account with the relevant service, or be subject to other activation conditions. Such conditions will be specified on the prize page. The Organiser shall not be liable if a Prize cannot be used for reasons relating to the terms and restrictions of the relevant service or the laws of the Winner's country.

4.3.5. Prizes will be delivered by sending an activation code, gift certificate (gift code) or other means provided by the relevant service to the email address supplied by the Winner. No cash equivalent of the Prizes will be paid, and Prizes cannot be exchanged for cash.

4.4. Three (3) Winners of the competitive part of the Project, selected on the basis of the finalists' rankings and the country/region quotas established by the Organiser, will receive the grand prize – a trip to Russia in 2027 (hereinafter referred to as the "Grand Prize").

4.4.1. The Winners who receive the Grand Prize will be informed separately, by email to the address specified during registration on the Website, of the conditions, dates, itinerary and composition of the trip no later than March 2027.

5. Final Provisions

5.1. All disputes and disagreements arising in connection with the organisation and conduct of the Project shall be resolved through negotiations. Any disputes that cannot be settled through negotiations shall be resolved by a court at the location of the Organiser in accordance with the substantive and procedural laws of the Russian Federation.

5.2. Participants and their parents and/or legal representatives shall bear all costs of obtaining the documents required under these Rules and taking any steps necessary to participate in the Project.

5.3. All documents prepared in simple handwritten form must be written legibly and clearly. Scanned copies and photocopies must be fully legible; otherwise, the Organiser may deem them unacceptable.

5.4. If the Prizes cannot be delivered within the planned timeframes for reasons beyond the Organiser's control, the Organiser may, at its sole discretion, cancel or reschedule their delivery. In such circumstances, a Participant shall not be entitled to claim any compensation relating to their participation in the Project.

5.5. The Organiser may engage third parties to conduct the Project or perform any actions relating to it, including operating the Website and providing the Prizes.

5.6. Participants' personal data will be processed in accordance with the Privacy Policy published on the Website and the consent to personal data processing given during registration.

5.7. These Rules govern the conduct of the Quiz online on the Website. Any in-person events held as part of the Project shall be conducted in accordance with separate documents issued by the Organiser.
